REFEREEING CORPS

The qualification of referees must be confirmed by the Dan certificate of an international Hapkido organization and (or) a sports referee category issued by one of the Hapkido organizations.

First of all, persons who have passed international refereeing seminars on Hapkido refereeing in accordance with the rules of the Hapkido sport approved by the Ministry of Sports of the Russian Federation, are certified for the title of "Referee" and have experience in refereeing international competitions can apply for the post of Referee.

DRAW OF PARTICIPANTS

The draw of sparring competitions is made taking into account the sowing of the athlete in accordance with its results for 2 (two) calendar years preceding the day of the competition in such a way as to eliminate as much as possible the possibility of athletes leaving the same team against each other in the first battles, except when there are not enough participants from other teams in the refereeing protocol.

The draw for the demonstration competitions is made according to the rating principle: the strongest athletes (teams) who have already won prizes at international Hapkido tournaments, as well as those with the highest technical levels, occupy positions at the end of the list of participants.

ARBITRATION

Composition of the Arbitration Commission and qualification of members:

Members of the Judging Board, holders of the 4th Dan Hapkido and above, issued by the Hapkido International Organization and recommended by the President of the RHF.

Composition: one Chairman and no more than seven members, including the Technical Delegate.

Responsibilities: The Arbitration Commission shall make corrections to judicial counts, depending on their decision to appeal, and shall take disciplinary measures against officials who have committed erroneous or other unlawful acts. The results are provided to the President of the RHF. The Arbitration Commission is also entitled to deal with competition management issues.

Appeal procedure (protest):

1. If there is an objection to the decision of the judge, the official representative of the team must, within 10 minutes after the athlete's speech, submit an application for review of the decision (protest) to the Arbitration Commission, together with payment in the amount of 10,000 (ten thousand) rubles (120 euros), so that the decision on the result of the appeal can be announced after 30 minutes. In case of a positive protest decision, the contribution is returned.

2. An appeal meeting shall be held by the Arbitration Commission, with the exception of judges from the same region as the participant concerned. The decision is taken by a vote.
